CLASSROOM CONDUCT

To complete the course, trainees are expected to be punctual, to be attired as expected of a Public Service Vehicle Driver, and to complete all classroom exercises.

ADVICE ON THE ATTIRE OF TRAINEES

Both Taxi and Private Hire Car are public service vehicles used to provide public transport services.

Drivers of public service vehicles (PSV) are expected to dress according to the common decency perceived by the public commuters so as not to attract complaints and that it is safe for driving.

As a general rule for both female and male PSV drivers, the attire should be:

Feet : driving shoe (flat heel and cover the feet);
Bottom : long pants;
Top : collar shirt or collar t-shirt.

Examples of unacceptable attire:

Feet : slippers, sandals, high heel shoe;
Bottom : mini skirt, hot pants, shorts, knee length or three quarter pants;
Top : round neck t-shirt, singlet, offensive prints, and other casual or revealing top.

Trainees are required to be properly attired as mentioned above, failing which they will not be allowed to attend training classes or to attempt the prescribed tests.
